In the event of a contributor re-entering the Industry after having been paid a benefit, his completed years of service shall then be calculated from the date on which he re-commences the payment of contributions.

- (3) Retirement benefits:
  - (a) Normal retirement: Where a contributor retires from the Fund upon reaching the age of 55 years or any age thereafter, the benefit payable at retirement shall be his Fund credit.
  - (b) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, a contributor who has contributed to the Fund until the age of 55 years, may lodge a claim at any time until he reaches the age of 65.
  - (c) If the contributor remains in employment and does not claim within three months from the date such contributor reaches the age of 65, the benefit provided for in paragraph (a) shall automatically be paid to him.
  - (d) All applicants for retirement benefits shall produce such proof of age as is acceptable to the Management Committee, and the Management Committee shall have the right to adjust any benefit payable should a contributor's correct age differ from that originally stated.
  - (e) In the event of a contributor returning to the Clothing Industry or remaining in employment after payment of a retirement benefit, any subsequent benefit paid, save as provided for in subclause (4), shall be in terms of subclause (2).
- (4) Death benefits:
  - (a) The Management Committee, upon receiving proof of the death of a contributor, may authorise the payment of a death benefit-

- (i) equal to 78 times the contributor's weekly wage or 18 times his monthly salary as at the date of his last contribution to the Fund immediately prior to his death, with the proviso that such benefit shall not exceed the limitation in the wage rate in clause 1 (2) (b) of the Main Collective Agreement for the Western Cape Region of the Council, as amended from time to time; plus
  - (ii) his Fund credit.
- (b) The death benefit payable in terms of this clause shall continue to apply for a period of 4 weeks after the date of termination of employment of a contributor: Provided that such period of 4 weeks shall cease to apply on the date a contributor applies for and is paid a Benefit in terms of this clause: Provided further that in the case of an application for either an Ill-health Benefit or a Disability Benefit which has been referred to the Management Committee for consideration in terms of subclauses (5) and (6), the contributor's death benefit shall continue to apply during the waiting period of six months, which waiting period may be extended for a further period upon approval of the Management Committee.
- (c) In the event of a contributor's employment not being terminated and where the employer has informed the Regional Chamber of the first or last dates of absence from work for four or more consecutive pay weeks of a contributor in terms of clause 16 (4) of the Main or Knitting Division or Country Areas Collective Agreements for the Western Cape Region of the Council, the contributor's death benefit shall also continue to apply during such period of absence up to a maximum period of six months from the date of the first absence whereafter the death benefit shall cease to apply.
- (5) Ill-health benefits:
- (a) The Management Committee may, in respect of a contributor who does not qualify for the payment of a Disability benefit in terms of subclause (6), and upon production of one or more medical certificates which are satisfactory to the Committee, authorise that a benefit calculated in terms of subclause (3) (a) be paid to a contributor: Provided that no contributor may claim Ill-health Benefits on more than one occasion.
  - (b) In the event of a contributor returning to the Clothing Industry after payment of an Ill-health Benefit, any subsequent benefit paid, save as provided for in subclause (4), shall be in terms of subclause (2).
- (6) Disability benefits:
- (a) The Management Committee may, upon receipt of satisfactory proof that a contributor has, before attaining the age of 55 years, become and remained, through sickness or accident, totally incapable of following his own occupation or a similar occupation and provided such incapacity seems likely to be of a permanent nature in the opinion of the Management Committee, authorise that a benefit calculated in terms of subclause (4) be paid to the contributor after a period of six months has elapsed from the date the contributor was last employed in the Clothing Industry or six months from the date of the event giving rise to the incapacity, whichever is the later date: Provided that no contributor shall be paid a Disability benefit on more than one occasion and neither shall a Death Benefit be paid after the contributor has previously been paid a Disability Benefit in terms of this subclause: Provided further that the Management Committee may waive the six month waiting period in circumstances which, in its opinion, warrant such action.
  - (b) In the event of a contributor returning to the Clothing Industry after payment of a Disability Benefit, any subsequent benefit paid shall be in terms of subclause (2).

10. PAYMENT OF BENEFITS

- (1) Claims: Claims submitted by contributors shall be dealt with as expeditiously as practicable to ensure speedy payment in all cases where the Management Committee is satisfied that the rules of the Fund have been complied with.
- (2) Form and manner of application: The form and manner in which applications for benefits are submitted shall be as determined by the Management Committee.
- (3) Waiting period: No withdrawal benefit as provided in clause 9 (2) shall be paid in respect of any claim until a period of three months has elapsed from the date the person concerned was last employed in the industry: Provided that in case of redundancy or retrenchment of a contributor, or the closure or liquidation of his employer's establishment, payment of this benefit shall be made as soon as possible after such event.
- (4) Cancellation of benefit payments: In the event of a contributor returning to the Industry before such claim has been met, the claim shall automatically lapse and contributions shall forthwith be resumed.
- (5) Cessation of interest: The Fund Credit of a contributor who has left the Industry after 28 February 2007 shall continue to accumulate interest at the same rate as the Fund until either the Fund Credit is paid or the funds are transferred into the unclaimed benefits' account in terms of sub-clause (7).
- (6) Continuation after retirement: Where a contributor returns to the Industry after payment of any claim, or remains in employment after the payment of a Retirement Benefit, he shall, if under the age of 65, rejoin the Fund and be regarded as a new contributor. If, however, such contributor is already 65, he shall not be permitted to rejoin the Fund.
- (7) Procedure for death benefits:
  - (a) Appointment of beneficiaries: Every contributor shall be required to nominate in the specified form and manner as determined by the Management Committee, a beneficiary to whom, in the event of the death of the contributor, save as provided for in paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) below, any benefits due to such contributor may be paid.
  - (b) If the Management Committee, within a period of twelve months of the death of the contributor, becomes aware of or traces a dependant or dependants of the contributor, the benefit shall be paid to such dependant, or to such dependants in such proportions and in such manner as may be deemed equitable by the Management Committee.
  - (c) If the Management Committee does not become aware of or cannot trace any dependant of the contributor within a period of twelve months of the death of the contributor, and the contributor has designated in writing to the Fund a beneficiary who is not a dependant of the contributor to receive the benefit or such portion of the benefit as is specified by the contributor in writing to the Fund, the benefit or such portion of the benefit shall, after expiry of such period of twelve months, be paid to such beneficiary in such proportions and in such manner as the Management Committee may deem equitable: Provided that if a claim is received from the Executor of a deceased contributor's Estate within a period of twelve months of the death of the contributor, and where the aggregate amount of the debts in the estate of the contributor exceeds the aggregate amount of the assets in his estate, so much of the benefit as is equal to the difference between such aggregate amount of debts and such aggregate amount of assets shall be paid into the estate and the balance of such benefit or the balance of such portion of the benefit as specified by the contributor in writing to the Fund shall be paid to the beneficiary.

- (d) If a contributor has a dependant and the contributor has also designated in writing to the Fund a beneficiary to receive the benefit or such portion of the benefit as is specified by the contributor in writing to the Fund, the Management Committee shall within a period of twelve months of the death of such contributor pay the benefit or such portion thereof to such dependant or beneficiary in such proportions and in such manner as the Management Committee may deem equitable.
  - (e) If the Management Committee does not become aware of or cannot trace any dependant of the contributor within a period of twelve months of the death of the contributor and if the contributor has not designated a beneficiary to receive either the full or a portion of the benefit in writing to the Fund, or where an appointed beneficiary has predeceased the contributor, or where a beneficiary was not properly appointed, the benefit shall be paid into the estate of the deceased contributor and the Fund shall thereafter be discharged of all its obligations in respect of such contributor.
  - (f) For the purposes of this clause, a payment to a dependant or beneficiary shall be deemed to include any payment made by the Management Committee to a trustee contemplated in the Trust Property Control Act, 1988 (Act No. 57 of 1988), for the benefit of a dependant or beneficiary contemplated in this clause.
- (8)
- (a) With effect from 1 July 2002, in the event of an employer's establishment ceasing operation in the industry as a direct consequence of the alteration of the industrial scope of the Council, the withdrawal benefit attributable to each contributor will be his fund credit together with a proportion of any reserves or surplus as recommended by the actuary and approved by the Management Committee of the Fund.
  - (b) If an approved fund, registered in terms of the Labour Relations Act or Pension Funds Act, is or has been established to receive the withdrawal benefits of affected contributors, then such withdrawal benefits must be transferred to such fund; or
  - (c) If the circumstances as set out in (b) above do not exist, such withdrawal benefit may be paid to the contributor as a lump sum benefit or transferred to a fund registered in terms of the Pension Funds Act or the Labour Relations Act.
  - (d) The employer will then cease to be a participating employer on such date set by the Management Committee, as soon as practically possible after the date the employer's establishment fell outside the scope of the Council and the Fund or such date as agreed to by the Management Committee, but which date shall be no later than 31 August 2004 or the gazettal of this Rule amendment, whichever is the later. The date so set or agreed is hereinafter referred to as the 'effective date'. Current contributions to the Fund shall cease from the effective date.
  - (e) During the period between the employer's establishment being excluded from the scope of the Fund and the effective date, the employers and employees may continue to contribute to the Fund, with the same rights and obligations as were applicable to them prior to the exclusion of their employer from the scope of the Council.
  - (f) For the purposes of Clause 9(4)(b) and 9(6)(a), the date of termination of employment of a contributor will be deemed to be no later than the effective date.
- (9) Unclaimed Benefits: As at 31 December of the third calendar year following the date of the last contribution due to the Fund, any benefit unclaimed will be transferred to an 'Unclaimed Benefits' account. Thereafter the Management Committee may, on satisfactory proof of non-payment, authorise payment of the unclaimed benefit to any person or persons entitled to such unclaimed benefit. No interest will accrue on benefits held in the unclaimed benefits account.

- (10) Forfeiture: Should the Fund be liquidated in terms of Clause 13, unclaimed monies will be forfeited to the Fund.
- (11) A contributor may elect on termination of employment to transfer his fund credit, or part thereof, to a fund registered in terms of the Pension Funds Act or the Labour Relations Act.

11. INCREASE IN BENEFITS

Increase in benefits: The Management Committee may from time to time increase the stated benefits provided for in this Agreement when there is an improvement in the finances of the Fund: Provided that any increased benefit shall be determined only after an investigation by an actuary into the liabilities of the Fund and this Agreement has been amended in terms of the provisions of the Act.

12. BENEFITS NOT TO BE CEDED OR ASSIGNED

- (1) Save as provided in subclause (2) hereof, benefits shall not be-

13. DISSOLUTION OF FUND

- (2) In the event of the Council or Regional Chamber being dissolved during the currency of this Agreement or any extension thereof or before the expiry of the period of two years referred to in subclause (1) hereof, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, contributions to the fund shall cease as from the day following the date of publication in the Gazette of the notice of dissolution of the Council or Regional Chamber, as the case may be, in terms of the Act, and the Fund shall be liquidated mutatis mutandis in the manner laid down in the Act and the Council's Constitution: Provided that the duties in connection with such liquidation shall be performed by such body or person as the Registrar of Labour Relations may appoint.

14. LIQUIDATION

Upon liquidation of the Fund in terms of clause 13 and payment of moneys due to members in terms of that clause, the moneys remaining to the credit of the Fund after payment of all claims against the Fund, including administration and liquidation expenses, shall be paid into the funds of the Regional Chamber. If the affairs of the Regional Chamber have already been wound up and its assets distributed, the balance of the Fund shall be distributed as provided for in the Act and clause 19 of the Council's Constitution, as if it formed part of the general funds of the Council.
